

1. Daily Survival (Toddler Version)

Title: Uzoma and the River Water

Story:

Uzoma was thirsty. They walked through the forest and heard water. "Whoosh!" The river was big and fast! Uzoma found a big stick and touched the water. "Too fast!" Uzoma said. Then they climbed a tree. From up high, Uzoma saw a small, quiet pool. Uzoma smiled, climbed down, and drank the cool, yummy water. Now they felt happy and strong!

---

2. Social Structure and Interaction (Toddler Version)

Title: Uzoma Finds Adisa

Story:

One day, little Adisa got lost in the forest. Uzoma looked and listened. "Adisa, where are you?" Uzoma heard a tiny sound. It was Adisa, hiding by a rock. Uzoma smiled, picked Adisa up, and carried them back home. Everyone was so happy that Uzoma found Adisa!

---

3. Climate and Ecological Changes (Toddler Version)

Title: Uzoma and the Cold Wind

Story:

The wind was very cold! Uzoma's hands were cold, and the trees were shaking. Uzoma looked around and found some leaves and branches. They made a small house from the leaves. "Warm now," Uzoma thought, and they smiled. Uzoma's family came inside, and everyone was safe from the cold wind.

---

4. Tool-Making and Technology (Toddler Version)

Title: Uzoma and the Magic Stone

Story:

Uzoma found a shiny stone. It was sharp! Uzoma used it to break open a big nut. "Crack!" Uzoma was happy and showed the stone to their friends. The stone helped them cut branches and find food. Uzoma's special stone was magic, and now everyone had their magic stone!

---

5. Spirituality and Cognitive Development (Toddler Version)

Title: Uzoma and the Shiny Stars

Story:

At night, Uzoma liked to look at the stars. They were shiny and far away. Uzoma picked up some small stones and put them in a circle. The stones looked like the stars in the sky! Uzoma felt happy, knowing the stars were watching over them and their family.

---

6. Migration and Exploration (Toddler Version)

Title: Uzoma's Big Walk

Story:

Uzoma's family was looking for more food. They walked and walked through the forest. Uzoma saw a big mountain. "Let's go there!" Uzoma said. They crossed rivers, walked over rocks, and climbed up. When they reached the top, Uzoma saw a new land full of trees and berries. Uzoma's family was happy—they had found a new place to call home.

---

7. Communication Through Symbols (Toddler Version)

Title: Uzoma's Secret Marks

Story:

Uzoma loved to draw. One day, Uzoma made marks in the dirt with a stick. The lines showed the way to find food. Their family looked at the marks and smiled. "This will help us," they said. Uzoma knew that drawing could tell stories, even without words!